Government Advocate (Crl.Side)

ORDER

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences punishable under Sections 296(b), 115(2), 118(1), 351(3) of BNS, 2023 r/w. 4 of TNPHW Act in Crime No. 144 of 2025, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The allegation against the petitioners is that the petitioners joined hands with other accused, attacked the defacto complainant and two others, and caused severe injuries to them. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent person and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that already arrested accused were released on bail and the petitioners are not having any specific overt act. Therefore, he prays for grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that totally four accused in this case, and that the petitioners are not having any previous case, and the injured has been injured from the hospital. However, she vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the above fact and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the injured discharged from the hospital, there are no bad antecedents against the petitioners and that already the arrested accused were released on bail, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.
