3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would contend that the respondent police have registered a false case against the petitioner under Sections 3(1), 4(2)(c) and 5(1)(a) of Immoral Traffic Prevention Act, 1956, and 351(3) of BNS and the petitioner was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 24.11.2025. The petitioner is an innocent person and have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and hence, he prayed that the petitioner may be released on bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that the accused persons were involved in alleged prostitution and investigation in this case is at initial stage and hence, he strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioner. He would submit that there is no previous case as against the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions on either side, considering the nature of offences involved in this case and the fact that there was no previous case and also considering the period of incarceration of the petitioner from 24.11.2025, I am inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:

[a] Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on condition to execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate, Katpadi, and on further conditions that:
