2. The case of the prosecution is that based on the information received from the secret informer about illegal selling of banned Ganja products, the respondent police arrived at the crime place and secured 1.620 Kgs of Ganja. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the respondent police have foisted a false case against the petitioner and he has been falsely impleaded in this case and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He was arrested on 22.11.2025 and has been in judicial custody and A1 already granted bail and this petitioner / A2 is similarly placed may also be granted bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing for grant of bail to the petitioner, reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the offences are grave in nature and investigation is still pending. The contraband and the vehicle were seized and the petitioner has previous cases.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the First Information Report.
