2. The case of the prosecution is that on 04.12.2025 at about 11.30 p.m, when the defacto complainant questioned the act of the accused in driving the vehicle in a rash and negligent manner, the petitioner along with other accused joined together and assaulted the defacto complainant and others with a knife, causing grievous injuries. Hence, the complaint.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He has not committed any offence as alleged in the FIR. He further submitted that the petitioner is in judicial custody from 05.12.2025. Hence, he prayed bail for the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that there are totally five accused in this case and the petitioner is ranked as A4. Investigation is pending and the offences are grave in nature. He further submitted that the injured was discharged from the hospital and that the petitioner has one previous case pending against him. However, opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the First Information Report.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, the injured was discharged from the hospital and though the petitioner has one previous cases, in which he has been released on bail, and considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner and also considering all others factors, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.

[a] Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the X Metropolitan Magistrate Court, Egmore, Chennai, and on further conditions that:-

[b] the petitioner shall report before the respondent police daily at 10.30 a.m., until further orders.
