Bharatiya Naya Sanhita, 2023, in Crime No.730 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that when the defacto complainant, the Sub Inspector of Police along with other officials were on routine patrol duty, they have noticed the petitioner and other accused assembled near the Kottaimedu burial ground with deadly weapons to commit dacoity. On seeing the police, they ran away from the place. Hence the complaint.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person, he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner is a law-abiding citizen and he is ready and willing to furnish substantial sureties and to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court; therefore, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioner along with other accused have gathered near Kottaimedu burial ground with deadly weapons to commit robbery. He further submitted that the petitioner is having 14 previous cases against him. Hence, he vehemently opposed the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the representation made by both sides, the nature of offences, and also considering the fact that nobody was injured in this case, and no properties were involved in this case, and that though the petitioner is having previous cases, he was granted bail in all those cases, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date on which the order copy was made ready, before the
