2 The case of the prosecution is that on on 15.09.2025, when the respondent police went to patrol, it was found that the petitioner tried to transport 3 units of gravel sand without valid permit. Hence, a case was registered in Cr.No.562/2025 for the alleged offences under Sections 326(a) and 303(2) BNS, 2023.

3 The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the respondent police and there is no previous case pending against the petitioner. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail.

4 The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the petitioner tried to transport 3 units of gravel sand illegally without any valid permit. There are four previous cases pending against the petitioner. Hence he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5 Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.
