PRAYER

To enlarge the Petitioners on bail in the event of their arrest by the respondent police in Crime No. 122 of 2025 and thus render Justice.

For Petitioner(s): A Logesh

For Respondent(s): Mr. S. Udaya Kumar

ORDER

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest in the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 126 (2), 296 (b), 115(2) of BNS Act and Section 4 of TNPHW Act in connection with the case in Crime No.122 of 2025, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 20.11.2025 the petitioners had abused the defacto complainant with filthy language and attacked the defacto complainant with hands due to previous enmity.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioners would contend that the petitioners are innocent; that they have been falsely implicated in this case and that the custodial interrogation is not required in this case and hence prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that there was a wordy quarrel between the petitioners and the defacto complainant due to previous enmity; that the petitioners attacked the defacto complainant with hands; that the injured was hospitalized and now discharged from hospital after treatment and no previous cases are pending against the petitioners and the offences are grave in nature, hence, prayed to dismiss the petition.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) for the respondent police and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the nature of allegations, the land dispute between the parties and the injured was discharged from the hospital; no previous cases are pending against the petitioners and since the custodial interrogation of the petitioners is not required for the purpose of investigation, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners on certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate – II, Ponneri on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only), with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent Police or the Police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further conditions that:

[a] the petitioners and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity.

[d] the petitioners shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioners in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioners released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].

[f] If the accused thereafter abscond, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 269 B.N.S.
