3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would contend that the respondent police have registered a false case against the petitioner under Sections 126(2), 296(b), 127(2), 309(6), 311, 351(3) of BNS., 2023, and the petitioner was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 15.11.2025. The petitioner is an innocent person and has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and hence, he prayed that the petitioner may be released on bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that the accused persons were involved in alleged theft activities and investigation in this case is at initial stage and hence, he strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioner. He would submit that there are 21 previous cases as against the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions on either side, considering the nature of offences involved in this case and the fact that the petitioner was granted bail in previous cases and also considering the fact that the co-accused were released on bail and also considering the period of incarceration of the petitioner from 15.11.2025, I am inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:

[a] Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on condition to execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned XVI Metropolitan Magistrate, George Town, Chennai, and on further conditions that:

the case so as to dissuade them from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer or tamper with the evidence;
