ORDER

The petitioners, who were arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 25.11.2025 for the offences punishable under Section 324(4) of BNS and under Section 3(1) of TNPPDL Act in Crime No.766 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that, due to previous enmity, the petitioners attacked the auto of the defacto complainant and caused damage to it. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would contend that the respondent police have registered a false case against the petitioners and they were arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 25.11.2025. In fact, the petitioners are innocent and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. This case has been foisted against the petitioners for statistical purpose. Therefore prayed to grant of bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (criminal side) would submit that this case was registered against the petitioners as they had attacked the auto of the defacto complainant. He further submitted that the petitioners have no previous case of similar nature. However, he strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstance of the case and submissions made by the learned counsels, nature of offence and also considering the period of incarceration suffered by the petitioners and that there is no previous case pending against the petitioners, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioners subject to the following conditions:
