enmity that prevailed between the petitioners and the de facto complainant, the petitioners have attacked the de facto complainant and there is a case and counter case. He further submitted that there are 8 previous cases pending as against the 1st petitioner, 3 previous cases pending as against the 2nd petitioner and in respect of the 3rd petitioner, there are 5 previous cases pending and also considering the gravity of offence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the representations made by both sides and there is a case and counter case and also considering the nature of offences charged against the petitioners, injured was discharged from the hospital and that though some previous cases are pending and in all those cases, the petitioners were released on bail, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order before the Judicial Magistrate No.VII, Coimbatore on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (each) (Rupees Ten Thousand Only), with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to
