ORDER

The petitioner / Accused, who apprehends arrest in the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 6 (b) of Vigarette and other Tobacco Products Acts 2003 and Section 123 of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita Act, 2023, in connection with the case in Crime No.191 of 2025, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that based on the secret information on 21.12.2025 the respondent police conducted a search on the petitioner car bearing Registration Number TN 51 AD 3249 which was parked in the front of his house and seized 180 kg of Tobacco Product.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner would contend that the petitioner is innocent and that he he has been falsely implicated, that the custodial interrogation is not required in this case and hence prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side), reiterated the prosecution case and on instructions, would submit that the respondent police seized the 180 kg of Tobacco Product and the petitioner has no previous case.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) for the respondent police and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the nature of allegations, and that custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required for the purpose of investigation, no previous case is pending against the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners on certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Kothagiri, Nilgiris District on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only), with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent Police or the Police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further conditions that:

[a] the petitioner and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity.

[c] the petitioner shall report before the respondent police everyday at 10.30 a.m until further orders.
