2. The case of the prosecution is that on 10.11.2025 at about 11.00 pm., the petitioner touched the victim inappropriately in her private parts. Hence, the complaint.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that the petitioner was arrested and is in judicial custody from 10.11.2025. Hence, he prayed bail for the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the investigation in this case has been completed and there are no previous cases pending against the petitioner. However, he opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the First Information Report.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, the nature of the offence, the fact that the investigation has been completed and that there are no previous cases pending against the petitioner and also considering the period of his incarceration, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.

[a] Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the Judicial Magistrate, Vaniyambadi, Thirupathur, and on further conditions that:-

[b] the petitioner shall report before the POCSO Court on all working days at 10.30 a.m., until further orders.

[c] the petitioner shall not commit any offence similar to the offence of which he is accused, or suspected, or of the commission of which he is suspected;

[d] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial;

[e] the petitioner shall not directly or indirectly make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer or tamper with the evidence;
