Vs

State Rep. by Inspector of Police,
Town Police Station, Perambalur, Perambalur District. (Crime No. 614 of 2025)

Respondent(s)

PRAYER

This Criminal Original Petition is filed under Section 482 of BNSS to enlarge the petitioners on bail in the event of their arrest by the Respondent Police, pending investigation in Crime No.614 of 2025 on the file of the Respondent.

For Petitioner(s): Gokulakrishnan.R

For Respondent(s): Mr.S.Udaya Kumar, Govt.
Advocate (Crl.Side)

ORDER

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 12.11.2025, when the respondent police along with his police parties were conducted routine vehicle check up at Perambalur North, near Madhavi Road, at that time, they found the petitioners along with other accused persons were illegally transporting 2 units of river sand in a lorry, without valid permission. Hence, the complaint.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons, and they have been falsely implicated by the respondent police and they are in no way connected with the offences as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioners are the owner of lorries and their vehicle was used without their instructions. However, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that on the date of the alleged occurrence, when the respondent police along with his police parties were conducted routine vehicle check up at Perambalur North, near Madhavi Road, at that time, they found the petitioners along with other accused persons were illegally transporting 2 units of river sand in a lorry and that the petitioners are the owners of the lorries. He further submitted that the petitioners have no previous cases, pending against them. However, he strongly objected to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the representation made by both side counsel, nature of offence, and the fact that no previous cases are pending against petitioners, and also considering all other factors, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners subject to the following conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate-I, Perambalur, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) each with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioners shall report before the respondent police everyday at 10.30 a.m., for a period of four weeks and thereafter as and when required for interrogation.

[b] the petitioners shall not, directly or indirectly, make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade them from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer or tamper with the evidence;

[c] the petitioners shall not leave India without the previous permission of the Court;

[d] the petitioners shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioners in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioners released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].

[f] If the accused thereafter abscond, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 269 B.N.S.2023.
