The petitioner who apprehends arrest in the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 296(b), 132 and 351(3) of BNS 2023, in connection with Crime No.481 of 2025, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the de facto complainant is a Head Constable asked the petitioner to remove the vehicle restrained in the public road and the petitioner has refused to move the vehicle. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case and he is innocent of the offences as alleged in the FIR. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterates the case of the prosecution and submitted that there are no pending cases against the petitioner. However, opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the nature of the offence, there is a dispute while parking of vehicles and the fact that the petitioner has no previous cases pending against him, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate-II Court, Vazhapadi, Salem on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioner shall report before the respondent-police every Saturday at 10.30 a.m., for a period of four weeks.

[b] the petitioner shall not, directly or indirectly, make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer;

[c] the petitioner shall not leave India without the previous permission of the Court;

[d] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].

[f] If the accused thereafter abscond, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 269 B.N.S.2023.
