The petitioner / accused No.5, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 303(2) and 326(a) of BNSS Act, 2023 [Sections 379 and 430 of IPC] and Section 21(1) of Mines and Minerals (Development Regulation) Act, 1957 in connection with the Cr. No.149 of 2025 seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 21.08.2025, the petitioner was caught red handed transporting sand from lake with the help of lorry without obtaining valid permission. Hence, the complaint.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person, and he has been falsely implicated by the respondent police and he is in no way connected with the offences as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioner is the driver of the said vehicle.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that on the date of the alleged occurrence, when the respondent police along with his police parties were conducted routine vehicle check up, at that time, they found the petitioner along with other accused persons were illegally transporting lake sand in a lorry and that the petitioner is the driver of the lorry. He further submitted that based on the confession of the accused persons, this accused was arrested; and that during investigation, it was revealed that the accused are transporting lake sand without any valid permission; and that the petitioner has no previous case, pending against him. However, he strongly objected to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the representation made by both side counsel, nature of offence, and the fact that based on the confession statement of the co-accused, this petitioner was implicated as an accused in this case, and that no previous cases are pending against petitioner, and also considering all other factors, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial
