2. The case of the prosecution is that while the defacto complainant was travelling in a train from Kayamkulam to Chennai, the petitioner misbehaved with her and also harassed her. Hence, the complaint.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and has been falsely implicated in this case and he has not committed any offence as alleged in the FIR. He would further submit that the petitioner was arrested and is in judicial custody from 06.12.2025. Hence, he prayed bail for the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that on the date of alleged occurrence, the petitioner misbehaved with the defacto complainant in a train. Investigation is pending. He further submitted that the petitioner has no previous case pending against him. Hence, he opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the First Information Report.

6. Considering the rival submissions made on either side, the nature of the offence, and the petitioner has no previous case pending against him and also considering the period of his incarceration, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.

[a] Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the Judicial Magistrate No.II, at Arakkonam, and on further conditions that:-

[b] the petitioner shall report before the respondent police on every Saturday at 10.30 a.m., for a period of four weeks.

[c] the petitioner shall not commit any offence similar to the offence of which he is accused, or suspected, or of the commission of which he is suspected;

[d] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial;

[e] the petitioner shall not directly or indirectly make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer or tamper with the evidence;
