2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with the other accused assaulted the complainant. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submit that the petitioner had not committed any offence as alleged and the petitioner had been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner are ready and willing to furnish substantial sureties for his due release and to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Hon'ble Court and therefore, he prays to grant bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police opposed for granting bail to the petitioner by stating that the petitioner along with the other accused assaulted the complainant. He would further submit that the investigation is pending and there are 11 previous cases as against the accused.

5.Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

CRL O.P. No.36007 of 2025

6.Considering the representations made on both sides and considering the nature of offence, injured was discharged from the hospital and that though there are 11 previous case as against the petitioner, he was granted bail and also considering the period of incarceration of the petitioner from 22.10.2025, I am inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:

[a] Accordingly, the petitioner are ordered to be released on bail on condition to execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate, Tittagudi, and on further conditions that:

[b] the petitioner shall report before the respondent police daily at 10.30 A.M., until further orders.

[c] the petitioner shall not commit any offence similar to the offence of which he was accused, or suspected, or of the commission of which he is suspected;

[d] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial;

[e] the petitioner shall not directly or indirectly make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of
