115(2), 118(1) & 351(3) of BNS, in Crime No.23 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused unlawfully entered the premises of the defacto complainant, abused him using filthy language and also assaulted him, due to which the defacto complainant sustained head injury. Hence the complaint.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person, she has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and she has been falsely implicated in this case. She further submitted that the petitioner is a law-abiding citizen and she is ready and willing to furnish substantial sureties and to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court; therefore, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioner and the defacto complainant are neighbours, the petitioner along with other accused trespassed into the house of the defacto complainant, abused him using filthy language and assaulted him, due to which the defacto complainant sustained head injury. He further submitted that the injured has been discharged and there is no previous case pending against the petitioner. However, he vehemently opposed the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the nature of offences, and in view of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and there is no previous case pending against the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on her appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date on which the order copy was made ready, before the
