4. The learned Government Advocate appearing for the respondent would submit that there are three previous case is pending against the petitioners, investigation is pending and the offences are grave in nature. Hence, he strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, considering the nature of offences, that some of the previous cases are pending against the petitioners and in those cases already bail was granted to them and considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioners, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioners, subject to certain conditions.

[a] Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail on their executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the
