2. The case of the prosecution is that the de-facto complainant is running a finance business. The petitioner along with other accused trespassed into the de-facto complainant house and robbed a sum of Rs.4 Lakhs and other properties. Further, they abducted the de-facto complainant's car and abused him with filthy language and also demanded cash of Rs.3 crores for releasing him. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the de-facto complainant and the petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready and willing to furnish substantial sureties for his due release and to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Hon'ble Court and therefore, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent reiterated the prosecution case and opposed for the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner. However, he would submit that there is no previous case against the petitioner and the co-accused has also enlarged on bail.
