3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and she has been falsely implicated in this case, as she was in possession of 30 bottles of vorion brandy each 180 ml. The alleged occurrence took place on 23.10.2025. She has not committed any offence as alleged in the FIR. Hence, he prayed anticipatory bail for the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police would contend that the petitioner was found to be in illegal possession of 30 bottles of liquor each 180 ml of liquor. He further submitted that the petitioner has one previous case against her and thereby, he strongly opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the First Information Report.

6. Considering the submission made by the learned counsel of either side and also considering the nature of offence, quantity involved in this case and no previous case is pending against the petitioner, I am inclined to grant
