petitioner to approach the competent civil Court as against the private respondents and grant further liberty to the petitioner to make fresh application for transfer of patta if the petitioner succeeds in the suit that is to be filed by the petitioner.

3.The learned Government Advocate appearing for the respondents 1 to 3 and the learned counsel appearing for the fifth respondent raise no serious objection.

4.Considering the limited relief now sought for by the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner, this Court, without going into the merits of the case and without interfering with the impugned order, grants liberty to the petitioner to approach the competent civil Court for appropriate remedy. The period during which the writ petition was pending before this Court is excluded for the purpose of limitation.

5.The writ petition is disposed of in the above terms. No costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petition is closed.
