The petitioner has continuously paying the insurance and get relief also including Fasli for the last year. All of a sudden, this year, third respondent denied to issue Adangal and Chitta to the petitioner. The third respondent is a proper authority to give the Adangal and Chitta, etc., but he refused the same. Without the certificate of Adangal and Chitta, the petitioner could not pay the insurance premium. Hence, this petition is filed for the above said relief.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the Revenue Officials had not issued Adangal and Chitta for the petitioner. Due to which, the petitioner could not pay the fasli premium.

4. The learned Government Advocate for the respondents 1 to 4 submitted that pending litigation between the petitioner and the original land owner, Adangal and Chitta could not be issued by the Revenue Officials.

In the light of the above, this Writ Petition is dismissed. However, the petitioner to prove his possession, this Court grants liberty to the petitioner to approach the competent Civil Court in a manner known to law.
