The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences under Sections 296(b), 115(2), 118(i) of BNS and Section 4 of Women Harassment Act, in Crime No.233 of 2024 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that there was a family dispute between the parties and on the date of occurrence, the accused persons are said to have abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and attacked with sticks and hands and caused injuries. There are totally 5 accused persons in this case and the petitioners have been arrayed as A2, A1, A3 and A5 respectively.

3. Heard the learned counsel on either side and perused the material records of the case.

4. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and considering the manner in which this incident had taken place and taking note of the fact that the injured has already been discharged from the hospital and there are no previous cases against the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

5. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned District Munsif cum Judicial
