Crime No. 675 of 2024 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 19.12.2024, the accused persons had stored dangerous explosive items in a shed and it was illegally sold and there was a fire accident in which one of the accused person sustained serious injuries. There are totally 11 accused persons in this case and the petitioner has been arrayed as A8 on the ground that the petitioner is also a partner of the firm which supplied the explosive substances.

3. Heard the learned counsel on either side and perused the material records of the case.

4. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and considering the fact that the partnership firm was supplying the explosives by virtue of the license given to them and considering the age of the petitioner and also taking note of the fact that except A8 and A11, all the accused persons have been arrested in this case and there is one previous case against the petitioner, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions:

5. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Oddanchatram,
