The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences under Sections 296(b), 115(2) and 351(2) of BNS read with Section 4 of the Tamil Nadu Prohibition of Harassment of Women Act 2002, in Crime No. 602 of 2024 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that there was a family dispute between the parties and on the date of occurrence, the accused persons are said to have abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and attacked with hands and threatened with dire consequences.

3. Heard the learned counsel on either side and perused the material records of the case.

4. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and considering the fact that there was a dispute between the parties and also considering the fact that the defacto complainant did not sustain any serious injuries and there are no previous case against the petitioners, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions:

5. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Palani, on
