ORDER

This writ petition has been filed challenging the order passed by the first respondent dated 18.12.204 thereby furnished the information under RTI.

2. By consent of both parties, this writ petition is taken up for final disposal at the stage of admission itself. Heard the learned counsel on either side and perused the materials placed before this Court.

3. The petitioner sought for information under RTI before the first respondent. Accordingly, on receipt of the same, the first respondent furnished certain informations. If the petitioner aggrieved by the said order, he can very well file an appeal before the appellate authority. Therefore, when there is an appeal remedy available as against the order passed by the first respondent, the writ petition cannot be maintainable under Article 226 of the Constitution of India. Therefore, the first limb of the prayer is not maintainable.

4. Further, the petitioner sought for consequential direction. Since the first limb of the prayer is not maintainable, the second limb of the prayer cannot be granted. Accordingly, the writ petition is dismissed. No costs. The
