The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences under Sections 294(b), 427 and 506(1) of IPC Act in Crime No.240 of 2024 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that there was a property dispute between the parties and on the date of occurrence, accused persons are said to have damaged the pipe line of the defacto complainant and when the same was questioned, he was threatened with dire consequences and was abused in filthy language. There are totally four accused persons in this case and the petitioners have been arrayed as A2 to A4.

3. Heard the learned counsel on either side and perused the material records of the case.

4. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and considering the fact that there is a property dispute pending between the parties, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.
