3. The prosecution's case is that on 31.03.2024, at about 11:20 a.m., during a routine vehicle check-up conducted for the 2024 parliamentary elections on Thoothukudi-Tiruchendur Road, the respondent-police, along with the election officer, found that the petitioner and other accused persons were in illegal possession of 20.6 kg of ganja in their car, bearing Reg.No.TN-23-BC-7603. Hence the case.

4. Mr.J.Joseph Zinoson, the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner, submits that the petitioner did not commit any offence as alleged by the prosecution, and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He however submits that the petitioner is ready to abide by any condition that may be imposed by this Court. He further submits that the petitioner has been in judicial custody since 31.03.2024. He therefore prays to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Per contra, R.Meenakshi Sundaram, learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent-police, submits that the petitioner and the other accused persons were found in illegal possession of 20 kg 600 g of ganja. He further submits that if the petitioner is enlarged on bail, he will commit similar offence. Therefore, he prays to dismiss this Criminal Original Petition.

6. Heard on both sides. This Court has perused the records including the First Information Report.

7. The petitioner was arrested on 31.03.2024 and has been in judicial custody. As directed by this Court, the Investigation Officer is present before this Court. As per the First Information Report, the respondent-police seized two bags weighing 20 kgs 600 gms. Admittedly, two bags were not separately weighed. Hence, Rule 3 of the NDPS (Seizure, Storage, Sampling and Disposal) Rules, 2022 has been violated. In view of the above, this Court is of the view that the contraband allegedly seized from the petitioner would be below the commercial quantity, i.e., intermediate quantity. The petitioner has established prima facie case. To be noted, the above view is recorded only for the limited purpose of deciding the bail petition. The above view, in any way, would not prejudice the rights of the prosecution in establishing its case during the trial. The charge sheet has been filed. The petitioner has one previous case, which is not similar in nature. Considering the above, and also considering the period of incarceration, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, however, subject to certain conditions. Accordingly, bail is granted to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:

(i) The petitioner shall execute a bond for Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) along with two sureties each for a like sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees

(iii) The petitioner shall furnish his residential address and mobile number to the learned Principal Special Judge, Special Court for EC and NDPS Act cases, Madurai;

(iv) The petitioner shall appear and sign before learned Principal Special Judge, Special Court for EC and NDPS Act cases, Madurai, on all working days at 10.30 a.m., until further orders;

(viii) On breach of any of the aforementioned conditions, learned Principal Special Judge, Special Court for EC and NDPS Act cases, Madurai is entitled to pass appropriate orders against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the aforementioned conditions are imposed by him as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.
