3.The contention of the petitioner is that the petitioner being a lady was acquired the subject property by way of settlement from her husband and also changed patta in her name. While the petitioner enter into the property for doing agricultural work, at that time, the 4th respondent and her brother came there and obstructed the possession and enjoyment of the property and also threatened her. Therefore, the petitioner has lodged a complaint against them. However, the same was not considered. Hence, this petition has been filed.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor submitted that based on the complaint of the petitioner, enquiry has been conducted in CSR No.16 of 2025 and the same is pending. Both the parties were summoned for enquiry. The enquiry is posted today (09.01.2025) and it requires some time to complete the investigation. At the time of enquiry, the grievance of the petitioner would be addressed. However, the petitioner is not facing any life threat.

5.Recording the aforesaid submission made by the learned Additional Public Prosecutor, the 3rd respondent shall proceed with the
