3.The contention of the petitioner is that the private respondents have passed a resolution to excommunicate the petitioner from the village and tried to grab the property of the petitioner. Therefore, the petitioner has lodged a complaint against them. However, the same was not considered. Hence, this petition has been filed.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor submitted that based on the complaint of the petitioner, enquiry has been conducted in CSR No.834 of 2024 and the parties were called for enquiry. At that time the private respondents given an undertaking that there is no excommunication as stated by the petitioner and the petitioner is very well participate in the village and temple activities, more particularly, festival in the month of Karthigai month and they are ready to receive taxes from him. It is further stated by the private respondents that since there was a land dispute between the petitioner and the 7th respondent, the petitioner as a camouflage lodged the complaint against the private respondents. Hence, the learned Additional Public Prosecutor submitted that since the private respondents given an undertaking that the petitioner will be permitted in the temple festival and village activities, there is no
