2.Today, when the matter was taken up for hearing, the learned Additional Government Pleader submitted that the District Administration after conducting a feasibility study came to the conclusion that further quarrying cannot be permitted in the petition mentioned site. These are matters which fall within the policy realm of the department. It is not open to the writ Court to force the Government to conduct any auction for quarrying activities.

3.Recording the stand of the respondents, this Civil Miscellaneous Petition stands dismissed.
