The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences under Sections 420, 465, 468, 471 and 120(b) r/w. 34 of IPC, in Crime No.127 of 2024 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant is the owner of landed property measuring an extent of 1.4 acres. The allegation is that the accused persons had sold the property including the share belonging to the defacto complainant by impersonating the defacto complainant. There are totally 7 accused persons in this case and the petitioners have been arrayed as A6 and A7. The allegation made against A6 and A7 is that A6 is the brother of the defacto complainant and A7 is the brother's son. They are said to have abetted the other accused persons to commit the crime.

3. Heard the learned counsel on either side and perused the material records of the case.

4. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and considering the overtact that has been attributed against the petitioners, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

5. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which
