The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offence under Sections 147, 294(b), 323, 379 and 506(i) of IPC and Sections 4 of TNPHW of Act in Crime No.26 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that hand loan was given for purchasing coconut grove and tractor and the amount was not returned back. When the same was demanded, the accused persons are said to have abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and threatened with dire consequences and also attacked with hands. There are totally seven accused persons in this case and the petitioner has been arrayed as A1.

3. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police.

4. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and considering the manner in which this incident had taken place and taking note of the relationship between the parties, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. Accordingly, this criminal original petition is ordered and the petitioner is ordered to be released on anticipatory bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the Additional Mahila Court, Srivilliputhur, Viruthunagar District, on condition that
