2. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is the husband of the respondent and the marriage between them was solemnized on 08.06.2006 and they were blessed with two girl children and since their matrimonial life ran into rough weather, HMOP was filed by the petitioner for divorce on the ground of cruelty, desertion and mental retardation. The said HMOP is yet to be numbered and during the pendency of the said proceedings, the petitioner has filed IA No. 584/2016 to prove the mental retardation of the respondent by appointing a guardian and the said petition was dismissed. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that though the petitioner has challenged the dismissal order passed in the interlocutory application, the petitioner would be satisfied if a direction is given to him to canvass all the points in the HMOP during trial.

3. Though notice was served on the respondent, none appears for the respondent.
