2. The case of the prosecution is that on 08.01.2025 at 2.30 p.m., due to a quarrel between the petitioner and the defacto complainant with regard to driving of the two wheeler, the petitioner attacked the defacto complainant with plastic pipe in his right fore hand. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submits that in fact, the defacto complainant was driving his two wheeler in a rash and negligent manner and also scolded the petitioner and the petitioner is nothing to do with the incident. Therefore, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent submits that the petitioner has attacked the defacto complainant with plastic pipe and caused injuries to him. He further submits that the injured has been discharged from the hospital.

5. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent police.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and considering the the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to this petitioner with some conditions.

7. Accordingly, this criminal original petition is ordered and the petitioner is
