the alleged offences under Sections 296(b), 132 and 351(ii) of BNS, 2023, in Crime No.7 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that during a regular vehicle checkup, the petitioner is said to have abused the police officer in filthy language and prevented him from discharging his duties.

3. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side), on instructions, submitted that the petitioner is a history sheeter and he has 4 previous cases.

4. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that a false case has been foisted against the petitioner and that no such occurrence took place.

5. Heard the learned counsel on either side and perused the material records of the case.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and considering the manner in which the prosecution has projected the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
