4. The writ petitioner retired on 31.03.2024 was not granted his terminal benefits till 11.07.2024. He has given a representation to the appellant corporation to disburse the benefits. However, since the said representation was not considered, he has filed the aforesaid writ petition. Upon hearing the contentions of the learned counsel for the writ petitioner and the appellant Corporation, the writ Court had directed the appellant to disburse 50% of the provident fund on or before 31.12.2024 and the balance on or before 28.02.2025 and other terminal benefits on or before 31.07.2025. Without paying the same and aggrieved by the direction given by the writ Court, the appellant is before this Court with this writ appeal.

5. Considering the financial constraints of the appellant Corporation as well as the employee, the writ Court had directed the appellant to disburse the terminal benefits in a time bound manner. However, without even disburse any amount, the appellant has chosen to file this writ appeal, which is not acceptable. Since the writ Court had graciously granted time for the appellant to disburse the benefits of its employee by giving time intervals, no interference is warranted to the
