petitioner's contention is that though he has sustained grievous injuries, proper Sections were not included and investigation is not conducting as per procedure.

2. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor submitted that in this case, during enquiry, materials and medical records were collected and finding injuries are serious, Sections are altered into offences under Sections 191(2), 191(3), 296(b), 351(3), 49 and 118(2) of BNS Act and final report was filed listing 12 witnesses and materials by way of e-filing.

3. In view of the above, nothing survives for further adjudication in this petition. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is disposed of with direction to the trial Court to take the charge sheet filed in Crime NO. 52 of 2024 on file without any further delay and proceed to complete the trial within six months.
