The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences under Sections (*)115(2), 296(b), 303(2), 351(2) of BNS read with Section 4 of the Tamil Nadu Prohibition of Harassment of Women Act 2002, in Crime No. 19 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that there was a property dispute between the parties and on the date of occurrence, the accused persons are said to have abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and threatened with dire consequences and attacked the defacto complainant. There are totally two accused persons and the petitioner has been arrayed as A2.

3. Heard the learned counsel on either side and perused the material records of the case.

4. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and considering the manner in which the entire incident had taken place, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions:
