2. Considering the nature of the order going to be passed in this writ petition, notice to the private respondents is dispensed with. Heard the learned counsel on either side and perused the materials placed before this Court.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the first respondent has no jurisdiction to stay his own order.

4. It is seen from the records that the case pending before the first respondent is posted for hearing on 29.01.2025. In the meanwhile, the order passed by the second respondent was stayed, in respect of appointment of the petitioner as hereditary trustee for the respondent temple. Therefore, this Court has no infirmity or illegality in the order passed by the first respondent. The first respondent is directed to pass final orders within a period of four weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.
