both sides represented that during pendency of the case in C.C.No.118 of 2016, the matter has been amicably settled between the parties and to that effect, they have entered into a compromise and the same was filed before this Court.

4. Today, the defacto-complainant and all the accused are present and the Court enquired about the terms of compromise. The defacto-complainant represented that they entered into a compromise and he has no objection in allowing this petition. A compromise memo, dated 09.03.2024 signed by the parties and their respective counsels, is also filed before this Court.

5. This Court has perused the terms of the compromise memo.

6. Considering the nature of the offences, relationship between the parties and they have also entered into a compromise, along with the counter case, it is appropriate to allow this petition.

7. Recording the said compromise memo, this petition is allowed and C.C.No.118 of 2016, on the file of the learned Judicial Magistrate
