2. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that as per the direction of this Court, the petitioner has complied the condition without fail. He would further submit that the petitioner is a senior citizen and suffering from various ailments. Due to which, he is unable to appear before the learned Additional District and Sessions Judge, Periyakumam. Hence, he prayed to relax the condition imposed against the petitioner.

3. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that petitioner is complying with the conditions imposed by this Court regularly.

4. Considering the submissions made on either side, the condition imposed as against the petitioner is modified and the petitioner is directed to report before the learned Additional District and Sessions Judge, Periyakulam, on the first working day of every English Calendar month, until further orders.
