2. The learned counsel appearing for the sixth respondent Insurance Company would submit that the eligible medical reimbursement of Rs.97,378/- has already been settled. However, the learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the full amount as claimed by the petitioner is yet to be settled and the application before the District Collector is pending. If so, the petitioner is at liberty to move the same for passing appropriate orders.

3. In view of the above, the writ petition is disposed of. No costs.
