2. The case of the prosecution is that A1 is the uncle of the de facto complainant, and steps were taken by the parents of the de facto complainant to arrange her marriage with A1. 4. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and considering the manner in which the incident has taken place and considering the fact that no injury was sustained by the de facto complainant and taking note of the fact that A1 has two previous cases and other accused persons have one previous case each, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

5. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of their arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Aruppukottai, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two common sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:
