and Sessions Judge (Fast Track Court), Kumbakonam pending disposal of the Criminal Revision Case in CrI.R.C.(MD)No.109 of 2025.

2. Based on a complaint given by the de-facto complainant, a First Information Report, in Crime No.1 of 2005, came to be registered by the respondent police as against the petitioner/ A1 for the offence under Sections 408 and 477(A) of IPC.

3. The respondent, after completing the investigation, has filed the final report and the same was taken on file in C.C.No.268 of 2007 on the file of the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Kumbakonam.

4. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has been convicted by the trial Court on 06.07.2018, and the trial Court sentenced the petitioner to undergo simple imprisonment for a period of three years and to pay a fine of Rs.5,000/- (Rupees Five Thousand only), in default, to undergo simple imprisonment for a period of six months for the offence under Section 408 of IPC, and to undergo simple imprisonment for a period of one year for the offence under Section 477(A) of IPC, and the sentences were ordered to run concurrently.

5. Challenging the above said conviction and sentence, the petitioner has preferred an appeal in Criminal Appeal No.81 of 2018 on the file of the learned Additional District and Sessions Judge (Fast Track Court), Kumbakonam. By a judgment, dated 25.09.2024, the learned Additional District and Sessions Judge (Fast Track Court), Kumbakonam, by confirming the said conviction and sentence, dismissed the appeal. Being dissatisfied with the said conviction and sentence, the petitioner has preferred the present Criminal Revision Case, along with this Criminal Miscellaneous Petition seeking suspension of sentence, before this Court.

6. It is submitted by the learned counsel for the petitioner that there are several infirmities in the prosecution case, and also there are contradictions in material particulars between the evidence of the prosecution witnesses.

7. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent submitted that there are enough materials available on record against the petitioner and hence, he opposed to grant suspension of sentence.

8. This Court has carefully considered the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent, and has also perused the materials available on record.

9. The learned counsel for the petitioner pointed out that there are certain infirmities and inconsistencies in this case, and also there are certain contradictions in material particulars. The fact remains that there are arguable points involved in this criminal revision and further, the criminal revision is not likely to be taken up for final hearing in the near future, this Court is of the considered view that the petitioner herein is entitled to the relief of grant of suspension of sentence.
