The petitioner, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences under Sections 296(b), 115(2) and 351(3) of BNS 2023, in Crime No.24 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the accused persons were walking in the road and were using filthy language. When the same was questioned by the defacto complainant, he was abused in filthy language and he was attacked with wooden log and sustained injuries. There are totally 3 accused persons in this case and the petitioner has been arrayed as A3.

3. Heard the learned counsel on either side and perused the material records of the case.

4. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and considering the manner in which this incident had taken place and taking note of the fact that the defacto complainant has been discharged from the hospital and there are no previous cases against the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

5. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned District Munsif cum Judicial
