Company, wherein the claim made by the petitioner seeking reimbursement for the expenses of the medical treatment undertaken by her husband has been rejected.

2. According to the learned counsel appearing for the writ petitioner, the rejection order has been made primarily on the ground that the treatment has been taken in a non-network hospital. However, according to him, the petitioner would be eligible to make a claim because the treatment was undertaken due to emergence situation.

3. Per contra, the learned Standing Counsel appearing for the respondents 3 to 5 submits that, in case, if the rejection order is passed by the Insurance Company, the claimant has to approach the District Level Empowerment Committee of the concerned District.

4. In view of the above said submissions, this Writ Petition stands disposed of with liberty to the petitioner to approach the concerned District Level Empowerment Committee to ventilate her grievances. In case, if any such appeal is filed before the said Committee, the same shall be disposed of
