2. Complaining inaction on the part of the respondents 1 to 3 on the said representation, the petitioner has approached this Court by filing the present writ petition.

3. Today, when the matter is taken up for consideration, Mr.K.K.Kannan, learned Standing Counsel appearing for the first respondent, brought to the notice of this Court that basing upon the previous representation submitted by the petitioner, appropriate action has already been initiated and a final notice dated 05.10.2024, has been served on the respondents 4 and 5 and appropriate action would be taken within a short time.

4. Considering the fact that the first respondent has already initiated action basing on the previous representation submitted by the petitioner and a final notice dated 05.10.2024 is also stated to have been served on the respondents 4 and 5, this Court does not find any reason to entertain this writ petition complaining inaction against the respondents 1 to 3. However, it would be appropriate to fix some time frame for conclusion of the action initiated by the first respondent.
