3. When the matter was taken up for hearing, the learned counsels on both sides represented that during pendency of the case in Spl.S.C.No. 8 of 2022, the matter has been amicably settled between the parties and to that effect, they have entered into a compromise and the same was filed before this Court.

4. Today, the accused is present before this Court in person and the defacto complainant is present through Video Conferencing and the Court enquired about the terms of compromise. The defacto-complainant represented that they entered into a compromise and he has no objection in allowing this petition. A compromise memo, dated 27.01.2025 signed by the parties and their respective counsels, is also filed before this Court.

5. This Court has perused the terms of the compromise memo.

6. Considering the nature of the offences and the parties have also entered into a compromise, it is appropriate to allow this petition.

7. Recording the said compromise memo, this petition is allowed and Spl.S.C.No.8 of 2022 on the file of the learned Special Court fore
